TO: City Council

FROM: Curtis Cannon, Community Development Director [Signature]

SUBJECT: Appointment to the Downtown Improvement Task Force.

RECOMMENDATION

That the Mayor, with the approval of the City Council, appoint a member to the Downtown Improvement Task Force.

DISCUSSION

The Downtown Improvement Task Force (DITF) has been a collaboration of downtown business interests and city government to improve the downtown community. Established on January 11, 2005, some DITF accomplishments include having an increased security presence, the "clean-sweep" program, graffiti clean-up, tree trimming, review of window commercial display policies and land-use program.

This committee meets on the third Thursday of the month and has had two Councilmembers sit on the committee in the past. Currently, only Councilman MacDonald sits on the board and another Councilmember needs to be appointed. liaison for this committee.

FINANICAL IMPACT
